Joan Johnson, Land Stewardship Committee.

Use Your Echo 7-30

Echo is a great source of general knowledge. When asked about a subject, it often responds with the summary paragraph from that subject's Wikipedia entry. It will then ask if you want to hear more. Unfortunately, our 'fleet' Echo devices can't access the rest of these Wikipedia articles, so if you say, "yes," you will be disappointed. However, our Echos can still provide lots of interesting answers. Here are a few 'General Knowledge' questions to try. You can certainly think of many more...

Echo, tell me about Schaumburg, Illinois. Echo, Wikipedia Thomas Edison. Echo, what is a synonym for 'heavy'? Echo, what food is a good source of Vitamin A? Echo, when did the horse Citation win the Kentucky Derby?
